Strategic Market Alliance

Travis Brady with SMA
President/CEO Dick McGann

AND THE WINNER IS... BRADY!

Last week, Brady was honored with not one, but three awards at the Strategic Market Alliance (SMA) Conference in Denver, Colorado. Held at the historic Wings Over the Rockies Air & Space Museum, the evening's reception and dinner concluded with an awards ceremony where Travis Brady accepted two "Navigator" awards for being among the companies who realized the largest dollar and percentage increases in 2014 and the "O.S.C.A.R." award for outstanding achievement in support of the sales process.

"These awards are representative of a collective team effort at Brady," said Travis. "We appreciate all the hard work from an outstanding group I am proud to work with."
