Brady Promotes Jerry Pavlic to Division Manager, Equipment

Las Vegas – Brady, a full-line janitorial supply, equipment and foodservice distributor, is pleased to announce the promotion of Jerry Pavlic to the newly created position of Division Manager, Equipment effective immediately reporting to Ryan Banks, Senior Vice President of Sales.

Since 2014, Jerry has been an Equipment Specialist at the Las Vegas branch. In this new role, he will oversee sales and program development for all Brady locations; manage supplier relationships; handle product selection; and help refine our value proposition for this segment.

“In his tenure at Brady, Jerry has proven invaluable with his breadth of knowledge not only about cleaning procedures and the appropriate equipment pieces, but overall value to our customers,” said Banks. “He is highly regarded by our entire team for his professionalism and expertise. We are thrilled to have him lead this division Brady-wide.”

Prior to joining Brady, Jerry was with Tennant after receiving his MBA and holding various positions in consumer packaged goods and pharmaceutical sales. He and his family reside in Las Vegas which will remain his headquarters while supporting all other Brady locations.

“I am excited to expand my current footprint across all Brady locations,” said Jerry. “I love what I do and am enthusiastic to support other geographies and build this category even more.”
